Proceeds to benefit: The Jonathan Schroeder Memorial Fund

Cleveland Police Officer, Jonathan A.J. Schroeder, 37, was killed in the line of duty in September. Along with the 1st district vice unit, he was serving an arrest warrant to suspect, Wilson Santiago. Thirteen officers surrounded the house before some officers, including Schroeder, went up to the house to identify themselves. Santiago opened the door and slammed it shut firing shots through the door. Schroeder, a 10-year veteran, was wearing a bulletproof vest, but the bullet struck him under the armpit. Schroeder was taken to MetroHealth Medical Center, where he died. Schroeder, a 1992 Kent State graduate, leaves behind his wife, Amy, and his 8-month-old son, Eric.
